

storytime

Sunday, April 30th at 11:00am

FREE and OPEN to the community!

Join Author Lisa Rose (who grew up at TKA)

Hear her story, Shmulik Paints the Town

Followed by Q&A and Crafts

RSVP to Faith Brasch Fbrasch@tkolami.org or (248) 661-0040

Shmulik Paints The Town

Israeli Independence Day is coming up and the mayor is planning a celebration with awards and speeches, music and dancing. To prepare for the festivities, the mayor asks Shmulik to paint a mural and decorate the park around it, and Shmulik agrees. But he can't decide what to paint! Instead he looks for inspiration in the puffy clouds, the lovely trees, a kitten's soft purrs, and his dreams. Meanwhile, his dog Ezra takes the painting and decorating into his own hands – or paws! – and prepares the park for Yom Ha'Atzmaut.