

מבסלוד-מבסיוש יצוק יגנב :ודמוהיקופ מי עבלזמדע

Founder of Congregation Kol Haneshama in Jerusalem

Instructor of Prayer, Liturgy and Spirituality at HUC-JIR

Founder of Rabbis for Human Rights

May 4th-6th

- ◆ Fri 7:30 pm | Kabbalat Shabbat
- ◆ Sat 9:30 am | Torah Study
- ◆ Sat 7:30 pm | Special Havdalah Program - enjoy singing, learning and a glass of wine as we bring Shabbat to a close****
- ◆ Sun 10:30 am | Join us for Bagels and Basics as our guest presents "Spiritual Responses to the Political Situation in Israel"****

**All programs free of charge. RSVP to cspektor@tkolami.org 248-661-0040

5085 Walnut Lake Rd. West Bloomfield MI

Rabbi Levi Weiman-Kelman has been recognized as one of the most influential and dynamic figures of world Reform Jewry. A native New Yorker, he made Aliyah and founded Jerusalem's Congregation Kol Haneshamah in 1985. Having lived a life on the forefront for religious pluralism in Israel, Rabbi Weiman-Kelman recently received the Isaac Mayer Wise and Steven S. Wise Award for his contribution to the Reform Movement in Israel.